4. Rights of use, Access rights

4.1 The contracting parties agree that the databases, eJournal contents and eBooks are copyright-protected in De Gruyter's favour. This applies both to the platform/database and the works in the database and to the copyright-protected works contained therein and to any other protectable elements. For this, use and access are only allowed to the extent expressly permitted by this General License Agreement.

4.2 Access rights only apply to IP addresses registered with De Gruyter. Furthermore access rights can be obtained for additional authentication processes (e.g. Shibboleth) agreed upon by De Gruyter with the Licensee. Access rights apply to the Authorized Sites (Appendix 1ff.) of the Licensee within a LAN (Local Access Network). Access for multiple sites (Multi Site Access) has to be agreed upon with De Gruyter and stated in the respective Appendix.

4.3 Walk-in library users (walk-in-user) are granted access to the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks via computer work-stations within the Licensee's physical premises. All other Authorized Users are allowed to use the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks via computer work-stations within the Licensee's physical premises or - if the Licensee allows this provision - through remote access via the Licensee's secure network. Beyond this, the Licensee is not permitted to reproduce the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks or to make it available to the public.

4.4 Authorized Users are allowed access to the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks for their private use or for purposes of research, to view it and search it and to make individual print-outs or electronic copies of individual articles or chapters which do not constitute more than a small proportion of a database, eJournal or a eBook.

4.5 The Licensee may generate temporary local copies of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks which are produced for a limited time as an integral and substantive part of a technological process (caching), the sole purpose of which is to allow Authorized Users use in accordance with the contractual conditions and which do not possess any independent economic value.

4.6 The Licensee and the Authorized Users may use appropriate parts of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks to produce printed teaching materials for use by the Authorized Users within the Licensee's Authorized Sites; these materials are not permitted to be used for re-sale or any other commercial purpose.

4.7 The Licensee and the Authorized Users are not permitted to use or exploit the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks in whole or in part by sale to third parties, rent, lease, loan or any other means for commercial or trade purposes.

4.8 The Licensee is not permitted to be a commercial party to paid documentation services and to make the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks available in whole or in part for this purpose. In exception to this, however, the Licensee is allowed to respond to a request by an-other library to generate a print-out of part of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks (e.g. an eJournal article or an eBook chapter) and to despatch this via non-commercial in-ter-library loan services. This only applies to paper print-outs; electronic copies may not be made. The use of the "Ariel Interlibrary Loan Software" for the transmission of a small proportion of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks to a printer/fax of another library is allowed, a transmission to e-mail addresses is not permitted. The transmission of whole eBooks via non-commercial inter-library loan services is not allowed.

4.9 The Licensee and the Authorized Users are not allowed to make parts of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks available in other networks outside the Licensee's secure network, for example in the internet or the World Wide Web.

4.10 The Licensee and the Authorized Users are not permitted to deploy robots, spiders, crawlers or other automated download programs or other aids to search, index or download the licensed da-tabases, eJournal contents and eBooks continuously and automatically (e.g. systematic download, deployment of retrieval software).

4.11 The Licensee and the Authorized Users may not process, operate on or in any other way alter the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks unless this is necessary for the content to be used in accordance with this General License Agreement.

4.12 The contents are only made available via the respective platform from De Gruyter. For purchased eBooks on De Gruyter's online platform www.reference-global.com the Licensee (additionally to access via internet according to art. 2.3 and 2.4) has archive rights for its own platform for the use of the Authorized Users. PDFs of the licensed eBooks will be provided to the Licensee on request. Any contents thus made available on the Licensee's platform are subject to these present conditions for access via the online platform from De Gruyter.

4.13 Within the scope of De Gruyter's current corporate principles, the Licensee is also granted access to the contents of previous volumes of an eJournal or what is known as a Yearbook published be-fore the volume currently subscribed and which have never been actively ordered or received. This only applies if these previous volumes are available on the platform Reference Global and only back as far as 1998 as the earliest year of publication. This access is provided on an ex gratia basis. If the current volume is no longer being subscribed to, the access to the contents described in sentence 1 is also terminated. The Licensee's rights of use laid down by legal provisions remain unaffected by the foregoing restrictions (art. 4)

4.14 De Gryuter reserves the right to withdraw individual products or parts of the licensed databases, eJournal contents and eBooks if De Gruyter no longer owns the requisite rights or if there is rea-sonable cause to suspect that individual products or parts of the licensed databases, eJournal con-tents and eBooks offend the rights of third parties or are illegal in any other way - for example are defamatory or obscene.

4.15 Authors' names, copyright notices, references to registered marks (esp. brands and company names), logos, other references serving identification or relevant for copyright purposes, together with liability exclusions, legal reservations etc. may not be removed, altered or suppressed.
