Laura Villafuerte

Laura originally comes from Quito-Ecuador but moved to Germany to study here. She enjoys travelling, doing sports and writing, and she published her first book this year.

Laura Villafuerte, CEO and co-founder of CareerBee and LV HR Consulting studied “International Management” at the TH Deggendorf. For her master’s in “Strategic Project Management”, she moved to Edinburgh and studied there for one year. After her studies, Laura worked three years in a multinational corporate, Roche Diagnostics GmbH, within the Human Resources department. 2018 she decided to quit this job to start her own company, LV HR Consulting. She started consulting companies in their HR strategies and their leadership programs. 2021 she founded her second company, CareerBee, where together with her co-founder they offer professional career coaching via a digital platform.
